

History

Time : 30 Minutes

Marks : 20

Ch. 4 The effects of the British rule in India

Q.1. Fill in the blanks.

3

1. Kawasji Nanabhoy started the first textile mill in 1853 at
(Mumbai, Kolkata, Ahmedabad.)
2. The first mill was started at Rishra in 1855.
(Cotton, Silk, Jute)
3. The territory under the control of the English was divided into for the convenience of administration.
(Subhas, districts, Paraganas.)

Q.2. Match the following.

3

A

B

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 1) Lord Macaulay | a) Founded Asiatic Society at Mumbai. |
| 2) Sir William Jones | b) Great Scholar of religion language and history of India. |
| 3) Max Muller | c) Founded Asiatic Society of Bengal |
| | d) Codification of laws. |

Q.3 Answer the following in one sentence:

2

1. Who were the pillars of the British administration in India?
2. What were the values of the new age in Europe?

Q.4. Elaborate the negative effects of the British rule in India?

4

Q.5. Answer the following . [Any Four]

8

1. Write about the introduction of the Western education in India?
2. What is dual Government?
3. Write about the Pitt's India Act of 1784.
4. Why did the traditional industries in India close down?
5. Why the new judicial system was not without fault?
6. What is commercialization of agriculture?
